

ORCHESTRA AT WORK

Burnside Symphony Orchestra conductor John Black (right) talks over a score with Ken Carroll and Dr. Robert Hecker.

First symphony concert Aug. 12

Plans are now complete for the first public concert of the Burnside Symphony Orchestra to be held in the Burnside Town Hall on August 12 at 8 p.m.

Bookings for the concert, which is in aid of the Burnside War Memorial Hospital, are now open at Cowdrey's.

The conductor of the orchestra, Dr. John Black said this week he was pleased with the progress that had been made since rehearsals started.

Music by Mozart, Faure and Mendelssohn will be played at the concert.

A solo will be given by well known Burnside musician, Mr. Peter Fraser, who will play the saxophone solo "Sax-rhapsody," by Eric Coates.

Dr. Black said the orchestra was still anxious to have more good string players.

It practised weekly at the Clayton Memorial Church.
