THE BURNSIDE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Burnside Symphony Orchestra is a non-professional community orchestra, founded in 1956 by John Black, then Reader in Agronomy at the Waite Agricultural Institute. Subsequent conductors have included flautist David Cubben, violinist Robert Cooper, and, since October 1982 - 1989, conductor James Ferguson. Today's concert is conducted by Alphonse Anthony.

Alphonse Anthony studied conducting under the Israeli conductor Shalom Ronli-Riklis and has conducted in Singapore and Tasmania before coming to Adelaide. Apart from being a member of the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra, he was also choirmaster of St Mary's Cathedral from 1972 - 75. Alphonse Anthony has been a member of the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra since 1976. As from the start of 1989, Alphonse Anthony has been appointed conductor of the Burnside Symphony Orchestra.
