

The Burnside Symphony Orchestra has been rehearsing for several concerts it will present to aid various charitable organisations.

delssohn's Symphony No. 4 (The Italian) with the leader of the orchestra, Mr.

The piece will be played at a concert at the Shedley Theatre, Elizabeth, on Sunday, October 20, proceeds from which will go to the "Freedom from Hunger" campaign.

The Burnside Symphony Orchestra will play for the second half of the concert and the South Australian Ballet Company will present "Le Jardin du Craie" (The Chalk Garden) during the first half of the programme.

Tickets are available from Zamel, jeweller, and Darryl Squires, men's wear store, of the Elizabeth Town Centre.

Following a successful concert at the Burnside Town Hall last week, which benefited the Burnside branch of the Mothers' and Babies Health Association, the orchestra will play at the Victor Harbor Town Hall on Saturday, October 12, to assist the local Kindergarten Union.

During the Labor Day weekend the group, which was established in 1957 and mainly comprises amateur musicians, will hold a music camp at the W.E.A. hostel, "Graham's Castle", Goolwa.
